Training Announcement and Group Chat Setup

Okay, so we are going to start the training and many of you may have seen the post that I'm going call it CHIP, CHP Leadership Training and it's going be an acronym of that and I was just looking at it.

Anyway, I'll figure out what exactly it is going but I don't want to wait until I have that. This is what I want you to know is coming. I'm gonna make a group messenger chat.

If you would like to be in it, I am just gonna put, when I make it I gonna to put the link in all the chats. Nobody has to nominate you. You wanna show up, you can show you wanna participate, You can participate.

There will be a little caveat to that. Maybe I'll do it in a different way. People have to watch this. and I'm gonna tell you what the container's gonna look like.

You have to agree to the terms of the chat group container. The second session I do, like this is just to tell it's coming and this what chat will be like, session one, I am gonna go, not today, I'm gonna do session one, that homework will probably take you two to three hours, but it is going to lay the foundation of the entire rest of year for you.

That's why I really wanted to do it in January and maybe even the next 10 years of your life, okay? It's gonna lay that groundwork. So if you're not willing to when I show what that is, you should not join the chat and you shouldn't be a part of training.

Now, all the other weeks will be like five to 10 minutes a week, okay? But this first one lays the groundwork of everything we're gonna work on kind of week by week.

And I'm not gonna do weekly calls. I usually, I give bigger time. So this is what I want us to understand is this what the overview of what this chip training is going to basically be covering.

Session One Expectations and Homework

Cause it is much bigger than network marketing, but it the principles that I've learned from 30 years of other personal development courses. There's things about Tony Robbins that I'll bring in, there's thing about Landmark Forum.

I've just learned so many things and it's just gonna come out how it'll come. So I want you to understand that we're setting the stage for a very, in the group, Messenger Chat.

If you choose, it will be titled CHIP Leadership or something like that, and you'll know what it is. That messenger group is a very distinct and unique place for everybody.

It is setting the stage for a positive container. These are the logistics and our codes of honor we're going to follow. The environment itself, I want to be in such a way that it will force out the darkness.

There will be no negativity, victim storytelling. I will often do 24-hour challenges of zero complaining and negativity in the chat. My last group couldn't even make it that long, okay?

I will not allow weeds to come in and take over the garden. It is a very fertile soil of the unconscious and conscious minds that we're trying to develop with each other, and I'm trying plant seeds of greatness, abundance, prosperity, self-respect, autonomy, in a place where the soul can shine bright.

that will not happen if I'm allowing for certain behaviors. It's going to be a place that's protected and sacred.

Chat Rules and Positive Container

So that means the code of conduct in this group chat, it is not for logistics, not three ways, is is for venting, ranting, or complaining. It is also not group therapy.

Let us be clear. It's not a place you will dump your problems, your worries, or your fears without any concern if the other parties in the group are capable of holding a container for that information.

So you can't walk into a room and just vomit out everything that's going wrong in your life and how, because people can handle it. You didn't ask permission.

So I'm telling you right now, that it's not the place for it to happen. All right? It's also not a place to sell or market anything. There'll be no links any of you could put in.

The only person allowed to do that will be me and I'll very scarce if I do it, it would absolutely relate to network marketing. an offer of someone I know personally, if I feel it's relevant in the timing and it is something that would piggyback on what we're doing, okay?

So again, why we're doing this in the chat, we are focusing on not complaining because I'm going to teach you about watching your language and how language is creating your reality.

The chat is a place where you practice your mindset shifts that are required to develop yourself into whom you desire to be in world. So you will practice it.

Okay. Pro tip on how to actually complain, vent, or rant if you need to. One, this is for every part of your life. This is your husbands, your wives, children, boss, coworkers, upline.

Never complain to anybody that you enroll. One you ask permission first. That means you say, here's the thing, marry. I'm in a bad place. I need some place to dump.

Are you able to handle my vomit right now? Okay. And then that person is entitled to say yes or no. Cause it might go, cause if any of you came to me, I don't know.

Then people did a month ago, two months, seven of us. I, don' have the space for it. and I'm like, i'm dealing with this. We're like. Oh man. Yeah. My problem is not a problem.

iIm good. You have to find somebody else.

How to Vent Properly and Ask Permission

Not doing it, no, that I dont have space. Im not helping you, not fixing you. Cancel all my patients. No one can get help from me. Am I doing. I'm entitled to take that space to say no.

So everybody else too. I need you to understand, you can never actually get consent inside a group chat from everyone, so you just don't ever do it there.

So that is what is coming. That is, what the group chat is. I did not set that up well in the last group to set, that all up first. So it turned into some things and I had to come back and wrangle it back in.

so I have to backtrack. We're laying it out front very clearly. Doesn't mean don't communicate I want lots of engagement and talking and I come in with challenges and homework and different assignments and it's really great.

I would highly suggest you talk to some of the people who have done this one before have worked with me done. This type of experience. They all loved it.

I've made it much better, I'm pretty sure, and the first session will show you that. In the 1st session, if you just did that and never came in the training, you will get tremendous value that will help your personal life as well as your professional life, aswell as you're experience with Ramon or any other venture you go into for the rest of your life.

But I hope you'll do it and then go, Now I get the groundwork of where I'm really gonna take this. It's like me taking you through a four week bootcamp training, getting you fit enough to then come into the actual 12 week course with me.

Participation Expectations and Closing Remarks

it's gonna be roughly like a three or four month process because I just don't believe in hitting everything week by week, like time in between and lingering.

Then you'll have this incredible community with each other. I gonna make a group of messenger. and title it, and you'll know that's what this is. This recording will be put up everywhere.

And this what the thing is, I'll have these written rules in that chat pinned. If you would like to come into it most likely, put the link out there and let you guys, your adults, you can come and go.

But I just want to say this, the caveat is I don't want the first week or two, once we start, if people want leave, I'm cool, but I am not going to have people hanging out for three or four weeks and then drop and it's not like that.

We are doing it or we are You got a first couple sessions to decide if it's for you or not. And if is not cool, head out, remove yourself and that. But I don't actually want a no participatory kind of dead weight energy in the group.

It's just no reason for it. You can take your membership back. I'm not charging for. Okay. Have a fantastic night. Go to product university. Learn some things that you'll have to relearn.

Cause the whole new product line is launching and it not going to matter. Just kidding. Not really. I'm sorry. You're welcome. Ciao. Love you guys.
