Summit Welcome and Host Introduction

Hi. Welcome to the world premiere of the Reversing Heart Disease Naturally Summit I'm Dr. Joel Kahn, your host for this transformative heart event. The power to prevent heart disease lies within you.

Strokes and heart attacks are not your destiny. They can be halted. They can be reversed. But today, I'll guide you on how to achieve the simple, natural lifestyle changes that you need to know about.

I'm also excited to introduce you to a community of experts who are passionate about empowering heart disease patients around the whole world. But first, allow me to thank our hardworking staff and extraordinary guest speakers.

And of course, our summit sponsors make this event possible. Now let's look at what we have in store for you today.
