Introduction to Sabrina Runbeck

Now I'd like to introduce our presenter, ladies and gentlemen. Please welcome, please welcome. The Dean of Performance and Productivity, Sabrina Runbeck.

Sabrina Rumbach.

Feeling Overwhelmed by Too Many Responsibilities

Do you feel surrounded by resources yet still carrying the weight of every responsibility? Strategy, funding, compliance, just to keep your business moving?

Hi, I'm Sabrina Rombach. I'm here to show you how I attract and maintain the best strategic partners that can turn into your champions. As healthcare leaders, we're often pressured to wear every hat and connect every piece ourselves.

You might have resources around you, but without the right guidance, it can feel like surface-level support.

The Power of Strategic Partnerships

It often feel like you are the one keeping everyone on the same page, leaving you to figure out the hardest questions and make the toughest decision alone.

But is that the best use of your time? There is a better way. I also like to say this, if you have a circle of friends and they don't inspire you, you don' have circle, You have mental cage.

I have to say her authenticity and her passion for what she does dealing with healthcare professionals is not just amazing. It's inspiring and I gleaned a ton of insights from her.

Building a Scalable Advisory Foundation

The biggest thing in health care, we actually don't collaborate as much. So people don t really know exactly what you need and how to help you. How do you create a very high-level strategic partnership to gain that visibility and credibility in the right circle?

Then you can truly accelerate your mission and profitability. Now, What's the solution? It's creating a scalable business requires a solid foundation of a 12 board fusion advisory.

Not just any advisors, but an integrated advisory board that amplifies your impact across 12 critical areas. This is more than expertise. It's a powerful, cohesive foundation that accelerates growth, avoids costly missteps, and lets you lead with clarity and focus.

Real-World Impact Through the Right Connections

With the right support, you are set to scale sustainably and strategically, backed by experts dedicated to your success. Through a single introduction, I guided a health tech founder to build a pivotal business alliance that improved the lives of 26 million patients.

This is the testament to the monumental impact we can collectively achieve when we establish meaningful connections and foster the right relationship.

Speaking, Media, and Consultation Invitation

If you're looking to infuse your healthcare technology event with real-world insights and connections that matter, I'm open for speaking engagements, media coverage, and consultations.

Together, we can pave the way toward attaining your objectives and set new benchmarks in this exciting industry.
