Symposium announcement and keynote speaker

I want to share with you this amazing symposium coming up October 3rd through the 5th in Orlando. These are the speakers, this is for doctors and everybody else.

And I'm one of the Speakers. The keynote speaker is below me, Dr. Jack Wolfson. He's a cardiologist, he's made some internet fame on his social media platforms.

This symposium has no continuing education units, so people on stage can talk about whatever they want. Here's what the speakers are going to go over.

Children's health and vaccine topics

Children's health and natural parenting, the best possible preparation for families for true wellness from birth to beyond. Vaccine truth and MVX plus lab testing.

I'll be talking about the MV X plus Lab testing, somebody else will be taking about vaccine truths. Women's Health breakthroughs, fertility hormones, migraines, menopause, and vital solutions for every stage of life.

Functional medicine for chronic illness, parasites, COVID long haulers, spike proteins, heart health, and more. Nutrition detox and microbiome mastery, healing from the inside out with breakthrough products just hitting the market.

Women's health and chronic illness sessions

It's amazing how in the natural healthcare field, newer products are becoming more and more consequential in improving health. The technology for making new nutritional supplements has accelerated so much in last 10 years, it's really amazing.

So in this symposium, you're going to learn more about new supplements, which is a fantastic tool along with the diet. Diet and supplements are all I've been using for my whole career.

Nutrition, detox, and microbiome breakthroughs to solve complex chronic illness. Next we have hyperbaric oxygen and healing technologies. I just had a patient, he bought a very expensive hyperbolic oxygen therapy tank.

He put it in his apartment in New York City and he reversed his prostate cancer with it. Discover the therapy that is accelerating patient recovery and getting miracle worthy results.

Business growth strategies for the practitioners. So you could be a health coach, you can be chiropractor, medical doctor.
