Introduction to Hospice Origins

I was wondering, like, how did you get into hospice? Oh, okay. Yeah. Start from the beginning. You want to start from that beginning? Yes. I don't know how much time you have.

Even when I as a young doctor, you know, maybe 40 years ago, even when i was a younger doctor and we were in the ICU, I would question like what are we doing here?

Like this patient's going to die anyway and then the family would be around like holding hands and crying and that we would all come in as interns or residents and
