You've been waiting for Christ

You've been waiting for Christ to come You've been waiting for Christ to come back. Stop waiting. He never left. He's back. Stop waiting. He never left. He's in your spine right now. He's been in your spine right now. He's been rising and falling in you once a month rising and falling in you once a month since you were 12 years old on a since you were 12 years old on a schedule older than the religion that schedule older than the religion that taught you to wait for him. The taught you to wait for him. The religions knew the age, 12, puberty, the religions knew the age, 12, puberty, the body comes online. And every one of them body comes online. And every one of them built a ceremony right there. Bat built a ceremony right there. Bat Mitzvah, Bar Mitzvah, confirmation, the Mitzvah, Bar Mitzvah, confirmation, the sacred thread, Khetan. Those aren't sacred thread, Khetan. Those aren't traditions. They're distorted rights, traditions. They're distorted rights, copies with the physiology removed so copies with the physiology removed so the ceremony points you at a man instead the ceremony points you at a man instead of your own body. So you stay of your own body. So you stay disconnected from your body, the disconnected from your body, the original temple. They tricked you good original temple. They tricked you good when they have you praying to an oil when they have you praying to an oil thinking it's a man who died on a cross thinking it's a man who died on a cross for your sins.

for your sins. So here's the whole thing, what the So here's the whole thing, what the sacred secretion is, where it's made, sacred secretion is, where it's made, the root it travels, the nerve it the root it travels, the nerve it crosses, the seed it becomes, the germ crosses, the seed it becomes, the germ it carries, and the exact reason your it carries, and the exact reason your body has been resurrecting without you.

body has been resurrecting without you. This isn't a belief system. This is This isn't a belief system.

What the oil actually is

This is anatomy with a calendar attached. anatomy with a calendar attached. Your cerebrospinal fluid isn't filler. Your cerebrospinal fluid isn't filler.

It's a conveyor. Your soul imprints it It's a conveyor. Your soul imprints it the way a thought imprints water. Your the way a thought imprints water. Your choroid plexus makes half a liter of it choroid plexus makes half a liter of it a day. It's never once stopped. It fills a day. It's never once stopped. It fills four ventricles in your skull. The third four ventricles in your skull. The third ventricle the Hindus called the cave of ventricle the Hindus called the cave of Brahma. The Taoists called it the Brahma. The Taoists called it the crystal palace. In front of it, your crystal palace. In front of it, your pituitary. Behind it, your pineal. And pituitary. Behind it, your pineal. And above all of it, the claustrum. Latin, above all of it, the claustrum. Latin, sanctum claustrum, the sacred hidden sanctum claustrum, the sacred hidden away. Also called claustrum away. Also called claustrum hematoliquorosum.

hematoliquorosum. hematoliquorosum. Hema, blood. Liquor, spirit. The barrier Hema, blood. Liquor, spirit. The barrier between blood and spirit. 200 years of between blood and spirit. 200 years of study in neuroscience still lists its study in neuroscience still lists its function as unknown.

function as unknown. >> [snorts] >> [snorts] >> [snorts] >> A group at George Washington University >> A group at George Washington University calls it the on and off switch for calls it the on and off switch for consciousness. It's been hidden in plain consciousness. It's been hidden in plain sight, in the name. When the moon enters sight, in the name. When the moon enters your sun sign, the claustrum receives your sun sign, the claustrum receives the signal like an antenna. It releases the signal like an antenna. It releases a neurotransmitter. That signal tells a neurotransmitter. That signal tells your pineal and your pituitary to your pineal and your pituitary to release theirs. Pineal, masculine, release theirs. Pineal, masculine, father, solar, melatonin, a golden father, solar, melatonin, a honey-like electric secretion. Pituitary, feminine, mother, lunar, Pituitary, feminine, mother, lunar, oxytocin and vasopressin, a milk-like oxytocin and vasopressin, a milk-like magnetic secretion. They differentiate magnetic secretion. They differentiate the signal into electric and magnetic the signal into electric and magnetic and release it into your cerebrospinal and release it into your cerebrospinal fluid. Science calls it somatostatin.

fluid. Science calls it somatostatin. The old texts called it chrism, The old texts called it chrism, Christos, Christ. Christ is the Greek Christos, Christ. Christ is the Greek word for oil. You've been singing to an word for oil. You've been singing to an oil.

The 28-day window

oil. Every 28 days, the moon enters your sun Every 28 days, the moon enters your sun sign. 28 days is the mean lunar cycle. sign. 28 days is the mean lunar cycle.

The moon spends 2 and 1/2 days in each The moon spends 2 and 1/2 days in each sign, and that's your right of sign, and that's your right of resurrection window. Not the new moon, resurrection window. Not the new moon, not the full moon, not your period. Your not the full moon, not your period. Your true sidereal sun sign, the real sky, 13 true sidereal sun sign, the real sky, 13 constellations, not the tropical constellations, not the tropical calendar that's off by 24 degrees. Mine calendar that's off by 24 degrees. Mine is Leo. So, my window is every month the is Leo. So, my window is every month the moon enters Leo. You can be a Virgo in moon enters Leo. You can be a Virgo in the newspaper and a Leo in the sky. Find the newspaper and a Leo in the sky. Find your real one, then find your dates.

your real one, then find your dates. Because when the moon enters your sun Because when the moon enters your sun sign, your cerebrospinal fluid receives sign, your cerebrospinal fluid receives the same frequencies it received at your the same frequencies it received at your birth, your original blueprint, the you birth, your original blueprint, the you that existed before the programming. And that existed before the programming. And if you aren't in alignment with that if you aren't in alignment with that blueprint, the same gift arrives as a blueprint, the same gift arrives as a symptom, a a trigger, a pain, a theme symptom, a a trigger, a pain, a theme that won't leave. That's not punishment.

that won't leave. That's not punishment. That's a signpost, and it's the That's a signpost, and it's the unconscious in you yearning to be made unconscious in you yearning to be made conscious.

The descent: vagus nerve to the kanda conscious. conscious. The oil begins to descend through the The oil begins to descend through the vagus nerve, the 10th cranial nerve, the vagus nerve, the 10th cranial nerve, the X, the cross, and through two channels X, the cross, and through two channels the yogis mapped thousands of years the yogis mapped thousands of years before microscopes, Ida, Pingala, and before microscopes, Ida, Pingala, and Sushumna, the central channel they both Sushumna, the central channel they both wrap around. Ida connects to the wrap around. Ida connects to the pituitary. Pingala connects to the pituitary. Pingala connects to the pineal. They intertwine like the double pineal. They intertwine like the double helix they are. The descent ends in an helix they are. The descent ends in an egg-shaped bulb between your navel and egg-shaped bulb between your navel and your womb, or your hara, the kanda, the your womb, or your hara, the kanda, the lower dantian. The womb or hara is the lower dantian. The womb or hara is the reservoir of your life force energy.

reservoir of your life force energy. Hara means sea of energy. It's a gateway Hara means sea of energy. It's a gateway into the ocean of life force. The kanda into the ocean of life force. The kanda is where all 72,000 nadis are born. It's is where all 72,000 nadis are born.

The psycho-somatic germ

It's the South Pole of your body's cosmic the South Pole of your body's cosmic egg, and it's where this story turns. egg, and it's where this story turns.

While the frequencies arrive, a seed is While the frequencies arrive, a seed is planted in your solar plexus. Not a planted in your solar plexus. Not a metaphor, an energetic seed, the metaphor, an energetic seed, the psychosomatic germ. It's the thing that psychosomatic germ. It's the thing that distorted your original blueprint, distorted your original blueprint, shame, guilt, [clears throat] anger, shame, guilt, [clears throat] anger, fear, sexual programming, abandonment.

fear, sexual programming, abandonment. It keeps your energy locked in your It keeps your energy locked in your lower three chakras, and it waits there, lower three chakras, and it waits there, unconscious, running your life from unconscious, running your life from underneath. Your solar plexus organs underneath. Your solar plexus organs form the inspection team, each one with form the inspection team, each one with a clipboard. Your liver asks what anger, a clipboard. Your liver asks what anger, frustration, and rage need to be healed.

frustration, and rage need to be healed. Your spleen asks what shame, guilt, Your spleen asks what shame, guilt, worry, and overthinking need to be worry, and overthinking need to be healed. Your intestines ask what healed. Your intestines ask what undigested thoughts, feelings, and undigested thoughts, feelings, and experiences need to be healed. Your experiences need to be healed. Your kidneys ask what fear and kidneys ask what fear and intergenerational trauma need to be intergenerational trauma need to be healed. Your pancreas asks what healed. Your pancreas asks what bitterness you're holding that keeps you bitterness you're holding that keeps you from tasting the sweetness of life. The from tasting the sweetness of life. The ancient texts called this germ the fish.

ancient texts called this germ the fish. It's formed in the middle of the water It's formed in the middle of the water in your cerebrospinal fluid. It smells in your cerebrospinal fluid. It smells like fish. And the oil arriving at the like fish. And the oil arriving at the kanda morphs into a seed whose frequency kanda morphs into a seed whose frequency matches that germ exactly. Your body matches that germ exactly.

Day 1: the ascent

Your body builds the medicine out of the diagnosis builds the medicine out of the diagnosis every single month. every single month. Day one isn't a day you observe. It's a Day one isn't a day you observe. It's a day you work. You must awaken your life day you work. You must awaken your life force to pump the oil up. Shakti, with force to pump the oil up. Shakti, with your craniosacral pump up 33 vertebrae.

your craniosacral pump up 33 vertebrae. Every chakra it passes receives that Every chakra it passes receives that vitalized energy. When it reaches your vitalized energy. When it reaches your solar plexus, it collects the germ. Like solar plexus, it collects the germ. Like collecting $200 passing go. At the top, collecting $200 passing go. At the top, your 33rd vertebra, the atlas. It your 33rd vertebra, the atlas. It represents the end of physical life. The represents the end of physical life. The seed has to cross over. The vagus nerve seed has to cross over. The vagus nerve crosses like an X at the 33rd vertebra crosses like an X at the 33rd vertebra through the medulla oblongata at the top through the medulla oblongata at the top of the spinal cord with ida and pingala of the spinal cord with ida and pingala crossing beside it. That crossing is the crossing beside it. That crossing is the crucifixion. Not a punishment, a crucifixion. Not a punishment, a mechanism. Crucifixion means to ascend a mechanism. Crucifixion means to ascend a thousandfold.

thousandfold. thousandfold. Your oil is refined and magnified a Your oil is refined and magnified a thousand times and it doesn't die. Then thousand times and it doesn't die. Then it meets the 12 cranial nerves, 12 it meets the 12 cranial nerves, 12 disciples. The story was never about disciples. The story was never about men.

The thalamus is the gate, the cerebellum is the tomb men. men. Crossing over isn't the end of day one. Crossing over isn't the end of day one. It's the hinge. The oil leaves the It's the hinge. The oil leaves the physical and enters the psycho portion physical and enters the psycho portion of you. It moves through the fourth of you. It moves through the fourth ventricle and that ventricle is roofed ventricle and that ventricle is roofed by the cerebellum. So the oil passes by the cerebellum. So the oil passes directly beneath it. And before that, directly beneath it. And before that, it's already passed the thalamus, two it's already passed the thalamus, two egg-shaped masses, one on each side of egg-shaped masses, one on each side of the third ventricle. They're the walls the third ventricle. They're the walls of that ventricle.

of that ventricle. Every signal that becomes conscious Every signal that becomes conscious experience goes through them. The seven experience goes through them. The seven refractors of light live there, refractors of light live there, filtering perception before it ever filtering perception before it ever reaches you. So, the route is exact.

reaches you. So, the route is exact. Third ventricle between the two thalami, Third ventricle between the two thalami, fourth ventricle under the cerebellum.

fourth ventricle under the cerebellum. The thalamus is the gate, the cerebellum The thalamus is the gate, the cerebellum is the tomb. And it hibernates in the is the tomb. And it hibernates in the cerebellum, the unconscious mind. That cerebellum, the unconscious mind. That isn't metaphor, either, because the isn't metaphor, either, because the cerebellum is where the story was cerebellum is where the story was written. It's the part of you that written. It's the part of you that learned the pattern before you had learned the pattern before you had words. It predicts, it stores the words. It predicts, it stores the emotional charge, and it does all of it emotional charge, and it does all of it below your awareness. Your cerebellum below your awareness. Your cerebellum holds roughly 80% of your brain's holds roughly 80% of your brain's neurons. You've never once felt it neurons. You've never once felt it think. That's how far beneath you it think. That's how far beneath you it works. Two and a half days, the same works. Two and a half days, the same time the moon stays in a sign. And while time the moon stays in a sign. And while it sleeps there, new blood is generated it sleeps there, new blood is generated and the old blood is removed by your and the old blood is removed by your body's inner intelligence. If the oil body's inner intelligence. If the oil never crossed over, none of that never crossed over, none of that happens.

Day 2: the purge happens. happens. Day two is the purge. And understand Day two is the purge. And understand what it took to get here. On day one, what it took to get here. On day one, you had to confront the unconscious, you had to confront the unconscious, make it conscious, heal its somatic make it conscious, heal its somatic roots. That's the only way the oil roots. That's the only way the oil ascends Jacob's ladder and reaches its ascends Jacob's ladder and reaches its psycho portion in the unconscious mind, psycho portion in the unconscious mind, where the story lives.

where the story lives. This is the part most people miss This is the part most people miss because they aren't doing somatic work. because they aren't doing somatic work.

How can an oil ascend without opening How can an oil ascend without opening the fascia? How can it climb while your the fascia? How can it climb while your nervous system is still signaling nervous system is still signaling danger?

danger? danger? How can it move without awakening the How can it move without awakening the craniosacral pump? How can it pass craniosacral pump? How can it pass restrictions along the spine that have restrictions along the spine that have been braced since childhood. How does it been braced since childhood. How does it get through suppressed emotion that was get through suppressed emotion that was never liberated? How does anything never liberated? How does anything ascend a temple body that was never ascend a temple body that was never purified? Coffee enemas, detoxes, purified? Coffee enemas, detoxes, fasting, rites. The physical work isn't fasting, rites. The physical work isn't optional decoration. It's the road.

optional decoration. It's the road. Then, in the tomb, the purge begins. The Then, in the tomb, the purge begins. The unconscious mind receives the message.

unconscious mind receives the message. The psychosomatic germ can be healed. The psychosomatic germ can be healed. The story can be released. What doesn't The story can be released. What doesn't belong in the container leaves. It can belong in the container leaves. It can be violent. It can be ecstatic. Both are be violent. It can be ecstatic. Both are the same event.

Day 3: the case file is thrown out

Day three. The moon exits your sun sign. Day three. The moon exits your sun sign. And the case file gets thrown out. And the case file gets thrown out.

Because the unconscious mind was served. Because the unconscious mind was served. The germ was carried. The story was The germ was carried. The story was released. The charge that was filed released. The charge that was filed against you before you could speak no against you before you could speak no longer stands.

longer stands. Then, the oil leaves the cerebellum and Then, the oil leaves the cerebellum and moves to your pineal gland. And that moves to your pineal gland. And that isn't a leap, because the pineal sits isn't a leap, because the pineal sits right at the front of the cerebellum.

right at the front of the cerebellum. The tomb has a door. And the pineal is The tomb has a door. And the pineal is the door. DMT releases. An explosion of the door. DMT releases. An explosion of light travels out from your pineal as light travels out from your pineal as electrical impulses into millions of electrical impulses into millions of dormant brain cells and wakes them up.

dormant brain cells and wakes them up. That light is where the word That light is where the word enlightenment comes from. And it's enlightenment comes from. And it's conditional. If the oil ascended on day conditional. If the oil ascended on day one, this is the death before the one, this is the death before the resurrection.

resurrection. resurrection. If it didn't, it was burned. Destroyed If it didn't, it was burned. Destroyed by your digestive fires. And the old by your digestive fires. And the old toxic blood, vibrationally matched to toxic blood, vibrationally matched to the germ you never faced, keeps the germ you never faced, keeps circulating through you. Same month, circulating through you. Same month, same moon, two completely different same moon, two completely different bodies.

What happens when it isn't honored

When you don't honor it, nothing When you don't honor it, nothing dramatic happens. That's the trap. The dramatic happens. That's the trap. The oil burns quietly. The old blood keeps oil burns quietly. The old blood keeps circulating. The germ stays unconscious circulating. The germ stays unconscious and expresses as the same pattern, the and expresses as the same pattern, the same pain, the same relationship, the same pain, the same relationship, the same year for another 28 days. Millions same year for another 28 days. Millions of brain cells stay dormant. The of brain cells stay dormant. The container doesn't expand. And then, one container doesn't expand. And then, one day, you get a large burst of high day, you get a large burst of high frequency anyway, through a ceremony, a frequency anyway, through a ceremony, a breath work session, a loss. And it hits breath work session, a loss. And it hits walls of armor your body never walls of armor your body never dismantled. That's what people call a dismantled. That's what people call a dangerous Kundalini awakening. It isn't dangerous Kundalini awakening. It isn't the energy that's dangerous, it's the the energy that's dangerous, it's the unexpanded container. Your body doesn't unexpanded container. Your body doesn't punish you. It waits. It's extremely punish you. It waits. It's extremely patient. It'll run the program again patient. It'll run the program again next month and the month after, whether next month and the month after, whether you attend or not.
